Wild Intuition. When you make a Animal Handling or Nature check, you can roll a d4 and add the number rolled to the ability check.

Primal Connection (1/Short Rest). You can cast the animal friendship and speak with animals spells with this trait, requiring no material component, using Wisdom as your spellcasting ability.

The Bigger They Are. You can target a beast or monstrosity when you cast animal friendship or speak with animals, provided the creature's Intelligence score is 3 or lower.

RACIAL TRAITS

Druidic. You can use it to leave hidden messages. You and others who know this language automatically spot such a message. Others spot the message's presence with a successful DC 15 Perception check but can't decipher it without magic.

Spellcasting. You can cast druid spells as rituals. You can prepare 10 spells from the druid spell list. You can use a druidic focus as your spellcasting focus.

Wildshape (Action—2/Short Rest). You can magically assume the shape of a beast that you have seen before. You can stay in a beast shape for 2 hours. You then revert to your normal form unless you expend another use of this feature. You can revert to your normal form earlier by using a bonus action on your turn. You automatically revert if you fall unconscious, drop to 0 hit points, or die.

Star Map. You've created a star chart as part of your heavenly studies. It is a Tiny object and can serve as a spellcasting focus for your druid spells. While holding this map, you have these benefits:

- You can cast guiding bolt without expending a spell slot 3 times/Long Rest.

- If you lose the map, you can perform a 1-hour ceremony to magically create a replacement. This ceremony can be performed during a short or long rest, and it destroys the previous map.

Starry Form (Bonus Action). You can expend a use of your Wild Shape feature to take on a starry form, rather than transforming into a beast.

While in a starry form, you retain your game statistics. This form sheds bright light in a 10-foot radius and dim light for an additional 10 feet. The form lasts for 10 minutes. It ends early if you dismiss it (no action required), are incapacitated, die, or use this feature again.

Archer (Starry Form). When you activate this form, and as a bonus action on your subsequent turns while it lasts, you can make a ranged spell attack, hurling a luminous arrow that targets one creature within 60 feet of you. On a hit, the attack deals 1d8 + 5 radiant damage.

Chalice (Starry Form). Whenever you cast a spell using a spell slot that restores hp to a creature, you or another creature within 30 feet of you can regain 1d8 + 5 hp.

Dragon (Starry Form). When you make an Intelligence or a Wisdom check or a Constitution save to maintain concentration on a spell, you can treat a roll of 9 or lower on the d20 as a 10.

Animal Whisperer

Due to his Dragonmark of Handling, Ursa can communicate with beasts more easily than others. He can understand their emotions and desires, often calming or befriending them in dangerous situations. This gives him an edge in dealing with magical or wild creatures, as he can soothe them with relative ease.

BACKGROUND FEATURE

Three Enchanted Potatoes

TRINKET

Ursa Catchum's Short Backstory:

Ursa Catchum grew up in the forests near Eldridge Village as the son of the legendary wildfire druid, Ash Catchum. From a young age, Ursa was taught the ways of the Circle of the Eternal Stars, a druidic order that drew power from the constellations. His father often shared the mysteries of nature and the stars, fostering Ursa's curiosity and magic.

When Ursa was four, his father disappeared while investigating strange planar disturbances, leaving behind a legacy of unanswered questions. After Ash's disappearance, the Circle of the Eternal Stars took Ursa under their wing, helping him grow as a druid. At age six, Ursa developed the Dragonmark of Handling, giving him a special bond with magical creatures.

Ursa now carries three enchanted potatoes—powerful magical items once held by his father's adventuring party. He joins Lilly Glimmergear and Stabby Sharpblade on a quest to uncover the truth behind the planar disturbances, his father's fate, and the mysteries of the enchanted potatoes. Guided by the stars, Ursa is determined to follow in his father's footsteps and find the answers he seeks. You come from a humble social rank, but you are destined for so much more. Already the people of your home village regard you as their champion, and your destiny calls you to stand against the tyrants and monsters that threaten the common folk everywhere.

BACKGROUND STORY

1. Star-Guided

Celestial Navigation: Ursa can use the stars to find his way, even in unfamiliar or difficult terrain. When the stars are visible, Ursa can always determine his position and the direction he needs to travel.

Predict Celestial Events: Ursa can predict significant celestial events, such as eclipses or meteor showers, days in advance. This allows him to prepare for potential magical or natural shifts tied to these events.

2. Creature Whisperer

Dragonmark of Handling: Ursa's Dragonmark allows him to communicate with animals and magical creatures more easily, understanding their emotions and needs. He can calm creatures, befriend them, or gain insight into their behavior.

Bond with Magical Creatures: Due to his Dragonmark, Ursa has an innate ability to form bonds with magical creatures, allowing him to connect with them on a deeper level and sometimes influence their actions.

3. Natural Resilience

Druidic Connection: Ursa's deep bond with nature grants him resilience in natural environments. He is able to endure harsh weather conditions, quickly find food or shelter, and survive in the wilderness with ease.

Star-Linked Magic: Ursa's druidic powers are enhanced by the stars. At night, his connection to celestial magic is stronger, allowing him to perform more potent spells when the stars are visible.

A flickering flame appears in your hand. The flame remains there for the duration and harms neither you nor your equipment. You can also attack with the flame, although doing so ends the spell. When you cast this spell, or as an action on a later turn, you can hurl the flame at a creature within 30 feet of you. Make a ranged spell attack. On a hit, the target takes 1d8 fire damage. This spell's damage increases by 1d8 when you reach 5th level (2d8), 11th level (3d8), and 17th level (4d8).

1st-level enchantment

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	30 feet
DURATION	24 hours
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a morsel of food)

This spell lets you convince a beast that you mean it no harm. Choose a beast that you can see within range. It must see and hear you. If the beast's Intelligence is 4 or higher, the spell fails. Otherwise, the beast must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or be charmed by you for the spell's duration. If you or one of your companions harms the target, the spell ends.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 2nd level or higher, you can affect one additional beast for each slot level above 1st.

DURATION	10 minutes
COMPONENTS	V, S

You gain the ability to comprehend and verbally communicate with beasts for the duration. The knowledge and awareness of many beasts is limited by their intelligence, but at minimum, beasts can give you information about nearby locations and monsters, including whatever they can perceive or have perceived within the past day. You might be able to persuade a beast to perform a small favor for you, at the DM's discretion.

Flaming Sphere

2nd-level conjuration

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	60 feet
DURATION	Concentration, up to 1 minute
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a bit of tallow, a pinch of brimstone, and a dusting of powdered iron)

A 5-foot-diameter sphere of fire appears in an unoccupied space of your choice within range and lasts for the duration. Any creature that ends its turn within 5 feet of the sphere must make a Dexterity saving throw. The creature takes 2d6 fire damage on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one. As a bonus action, you can move the sphere up to 30 feet. If you ram the sphere into a creature, that creature must make the saving throw against the sphere's damage, and the sphere stops moving this turn. When you move the sphere, you can direct it over barriers up to 5 feet tall and jump it across pits up to 10 feet wide. The sphere ignites flammable objects not being worn or carried, and it sheds bright light in a 20-foot radius and dim light for an additional 20 feet.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 3rd level or higher, the damage increases by 1d6 for each slot level above 2nd.

Healing Spirit

2nd-level conjuration

CASTING TIME	1 bonus action
RANGE	60 feet
DURATION	Concentration, up to 1 minute
COMPONENTS	V, S

You call forth a nature spirit to soothe the wounded. The intangible spirit appears in a space that is a 5-foot cube you can see within range. The spirit looks like a transparent beast or fey (your choice).

Until the spell ends, whenever you or a creature you can see moves into the spirit's space for the first time on a turn or starts its turn there, you can cause the spirit to restore 1d6 hit points to that creature (no action required). The spirit can't heal constructs or undead. The spirit can heal a number of times equal to 1 + your spellcasting ability modifier (minimum of twice). After healing that number of times, the spirit disappears.

As a bonus action on your turn, you can move the Spirit up to 30 feet to a space you can see.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 3rd level or higher, the healing increases by 1d6 for each slot level above 2nd.

Moonbeam

2nd-level evocation

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	120 feet
DURATION	Concentration, up to 1 minute
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (several seeds of any moonseed plant and a piece of opalescent feldspar)

A silvery beam of pale light shines down in a 5-foot-radius, 40-foot-high cylinder centered on a point within range. Until the spell ends, dim light fills the cylinder.

When a creature enters the spell's area for the first time on a turn or starts its turn there, it is engulfed in ghostly flames that cause searing pain, and it must make a Constitution saving throw. It takes 2d10 radiant damage on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one.

A shapechanger makes its saving throw with disadvantage. If it fails, it also instantly reverts to its original form and can't assume a different form until it leaves the spell's light.

On each of your turns after you cast this spell, you can use an action to move the beam 60 up to feet in any direction.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 3rd level or higher, the damage increases by 1d10 for each slot level above 2nd.

Summon Beast

2nd-level conjuration

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	90 feet
DURATION	Concentration, up to 1 hour
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a feather, tuft of fur, and fish tail inside a gilded acorn worth at least 200 gp)

You call forth a bestial spirit. It manifests in an unoccupied space that you can see within range. This corporeal form uses the Bestial Spirit stat block. When you cast the spell, choose an environment: Air, Land, or Water. The creature resembles an animal of your choice that is native to the chosen environment, which determines certain traits in its stat block. The creature disappears when it drops to 0 hit points or when the spell ends.

The creature is an ally to you and your companions. In combat, the creature shares your initiative count, but it takes its turn immediately after yours. It obeys your verbal commands (no action required by you). If you don't issue any, it takes the Dodge action and uses its move to avoid danger.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 3rd level or higher, use the higher level where the spell's level appears in the stat block.

Prepared (Druid)

Tasha's Cauldron of Everything

Call Lightning

3rd-level conjuration

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	120 feet
DURATION	Concentration, up to 10 minutes
COMPONENTS	V, S

A storm cloud appears in the shape of a cylinder that is 10 feet tall with a 60-foot radius, centered on a point you can see within range directly above you. The spell fails if you can't see a point in the air where the storm cloud could appear (for example, if you are in a room that can't accommodate the cloud).

When you cast the spell, choose a point you can see under the cloud. A bolt of lightning flashes down from the cloud to that point. Each creature within 5 feet of that point must make a Dexterity saving throw. A creature takes 3d10 lightning damage on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one. On each of your turns until the spell ends, you can use your action to call down lightning in this way again, targeting the same point or a different one.

If you are outdoors in stormy conditions when you cast this spell, the spell gives you control over the existing storm instead of creating a new one. Under such conditions, the spell's damage increases by 1d10.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 4th or higher level, the damage increases by 1d10 for each slot level above 3rd.

Summon Fey

3rd-level conjuration

CASTING TIME	1 action
RANGE	90 feet
DURATION	Concentration, up to 1 hour
COMPONENTS	V, S, M (a gilded flower worth at least 300 gp)

You call forth a fey spirit. It manifests in an unoccupied space that you can see within range. This corporeal form uses the Fey Spirit stat block. When you cast the spell, choose a mood: Fuming, Mirthful, or Tricksy. The creature resembles a fey creature of your choice marked by the chosen mood, which determines one of the traits in its stat block. The creature disappears when it drops to 0 hit points or when the spell ends.

The creature is an ally to you and your companions. In combat, the creature shares your initiative count, but it takes its turn immediately after yours. It obeys your verbal commands (no action required by you). If you don't issue any, it takes the Dodge action and uses its move to avoid danger.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 4th level or higher, use the higher level wherever the spell's level appears in the stat block.

Druidic

Class Feature

You know Druidic, the secret language of druids. You can speak the language and use it to leave hidden messages. You and others who know this language automatically spot such a message. Others spot the message's presence with a successful DC 15 Wisdom (Perception) check but can't decipher it without magic.

Druid

Player's Handbook

Spellcasting

Class Feature

Drawing on the divine essence of nature itself, you can cast spells to shape that essence to your will.

CANTRIPS

At 1st level, you know two cantrips of your choice from the druid spell list. You learn additional druid cantrips of your choice at higher levels, as shown in the Cantrips Known column of the Druid table.

PREPARING AND CASTING SPELLS

The Druid table shows how many spell slots you have to cast your druid spells of 1st level and higher. To cast one of these druid spells, you must expend a slot of the spell's level or higher. You regain all expended spell slots when you finish a long rest.

You prepare the list of druid spells that are available for you to cast, choosing from the druid spell list. When you do so, choose a number of druid spells equal to your Wisdom modifier + your druid level (minimum of one spell). The spells must be of a level for which you have spell slots.

For example, if you are a 3rd-level druid, you have four 1st-level and two 2nd-level spell slots. With a Wisdom of 16, your list of prepared spells can include six spells of 1st or 2nd level, in any combination. If you prepare the 1st-level spell cure wounds, you can cast it using a 1st-level or 2nd-level slot. Casting the spell doesn't remove it from your list of prepared spells.

You can also change your list of prepared spells when you finish a long rest. Preparing a new list of druid spells requires time spent in prayer and meditation: at least 1 minute per spell level for each spell on your list.

SPELLCASTING ABILITY

Wisdom is your spellcasting ability for your druid spells, since your magic draws upon your devotion and attunement to nature. You use your Wisdom whenever a spell refers to your spellcasting ability. In addition, you use your Wisdom modifier when setting the saving throw DC for a druid spell you cast and when making an attack roll with one.

Spell save DC = 8 + your proficiency bonus + your Wisdom modifier

Spell attack modifier = your proficiency bonus + your Wisdom modifier

RITUAL CASTING

You can cast a druid spell as a ritual if that spell has the ritual tag and you have the spell prepared.

SPELLCASTING FOCUS

Druid

Player's Handbook

Wildshape

Class Feature

Starting at 2nd level, you can use your action to magically assume the shape of a beast that you have seen before. You can use this feature twice. You regain expended uses when you finish a short or long rest.

Your druid level determines the beasts you can transform into, as shown in the Beast Shapes table. At 2nd level, for example, you can transform into any beast that has a challenge rating of 1/4 or lower that doesn't have a flying or swimming speed.

You can stay in a beast shape for a number of hours equal to half your druid level (rounded down). You then revert to your normal form unless you expend another use of this feature. You can revert to your normal form earlier by using a bonus action on your turn. You automatically revert if you fall unconscious, drop to 0 hit points, or die.

While you are transformed, the following rules apply:

- Your game statistics are replaced by the statistics of the beast, but you retain your alignment, personality, and Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma scores. You also retain all of your skill and saving throw proficiencies, in addition to gaining those of the creature. If the creature has the same proficiency as you and the bonus in its stat block is higher than yours, use the creature's bonus instead of yours. If the creature has any legendary or lair actions, you can't use them.

- When you transform, you assume the beast's hit points and Hit Dice. When you revert to your normal form, you return to the number of hit points you had before you transformed. However, if you revert as a result of dropping to 0 hit points, any excess damage carries over to your normal form. For example, if you take 10 damage in animal form and have only 1 hit point left, you revert and take 9 damage. As long as the excess damage doesn't reduce your normal form to 0 hit points, you aren't knocked unconscious.

- You can't cast spells, and your ability to speak or take any action that requires hands is limited to the capabilities of your beast form. Transforming doesn't break your concentration on a spell you've already cast, however, or prevent you from taking actions that are part of a spell, such as call lightning, that you've already cast.
- You retain the benefit of any features from your class, race, or other source and can use them if the new form is physically capable of doing so. However, you can't use any of your special senses, such as darkvision, unless your new form also has that sense.

- You choose whether your equipment falls to the ground in your space, merges into your new form, or is worn by it. Worn equipment functions as normal, but the DM decides whether it is practical for the new form to wear a piece of equipment, based on the creature's shape and size. Your equipment doesn't change size or shape to match the new form, and any equipment that the new form can't wear must either fall to the ground or merge with it. Equipment that merges with the form has no effect until you leave the form.

- without expending a spell slot. You can do so a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

Starry Form

Archetype Feature

2nd-level Circle of Stars feature

As a bonus action, you can expend a use of your Wild Shape feature to take on a starry form, rather than transforming into a beast.

While in a starry form, you retain your game statistics, but your body becomes luminous; your joints glimmer like stars, and glowing lines connect them as on a star chart. This form sheds bright light in a 10-foot radius and dim light for an additional 10 feet. The form lasts for 10 minutes. It ends early if you dismiss it (no action required), are incapacitated, die, or use this feature again.

Whenever you assume your starry form, choose which of the following constellations glimmers on your body; your choice gives you certain benefits while in the form:

Archer. A constellation of an archer appears on you. When you activate this form, and as a bonus action on your subsequent turns while it lasts, you can make a ranged spell attack, hurling a luminous arrow that targets one creature within 60 feet of you. On a hit, the attack deals radiant damage equal to 1d8 + your Wisdom modifier.

Chalice. A constellation of a life-giving goblet appears on you. Whenever you cast a spell using a spell slot that restores hit points to a creature, you or another creature within 30 feet of you can regain hit points equal to 1d8 + your Wisdom modifier.

Dragon. A constellation of a wise dragon appears on you. When you make an Intelligence or a Wisdom check or a Constitution saving throw to maintain concentration on a spell, you can treat a roll of 9 or lower on the d20 as a 10.
