

Ghostbloom, Spectral Blossom

Tiny Fey (Ghost/Grass) • Chaotic Good • Companion of the Guardians

Once the party’s little plant-friend Floraburst — reborn in Wraithpine’s ghost-light as a pale, glowing, chiming spirit who floats beside the Guardians.

Traits

Fey Step (1/Short Rest)	As a bonus action, teleport up to 20 feet to an unoccupied space you can see. Your next attack roll before the end of your turn has advantage.
Spectral Form	You can move through other creatures and objects as if they were difficult terrain. If you end your turn inside an object, you are shunted to the nearest unoccupied space and take 5 force damage.
Guardian’s Light (3/Short Rest)	Reaction, 30 ft. When an ally you can see takes damage, that ally regains 1d8 + 3 hp and immediately ends the charmed or frightened condition on itself.

Actions

Multiattack	Ghostbloom makes two Spectral Lash attacks.
Spectral Lash	Melee Weapon Attack: +7 to hit, reach 15 ft, one target. Hit: 1d8 + 5 slashing plus 1d6 necrotic damage, and the target must succeed on a DC 15 Wisdom saving throw or be frightened until the end of its next turn.
Ghostly Wail (1/Long Rest)	A haunting cry in a 15-foot cone. Each creature in that area must succeed on a DC 15 Wisdom saving throw, taking 4d6 necrotic damage on a failed save, or half as much on a success. On a failed save, the target is frightened until the end of its next turn.
Dread Shroud	Bonus Action; 30 ft; one creature. A chill bloom settles over the target. It must succeed on a DC 15 Wisdom save or suffer disadvantage on all attack rolls until the start of your next turn.

Running Ghostbloom at the table. Guardian’s Light is the party’s safety net — budget it (3 per short rest) and save one for the boss. Ghostbloom fears the rifts: play its guttering glow near planar wrongness, and let helping cost it courage. And keep it well clear of Lilly’s flamethrower cone and cold bursts — fire and cold hit it double.
